INITIATION

The Class of '85' was treated to a muppetational event by the Class of '82' on Freshman Day, September 24, 1981. The piglets for the day entertained the Seniors by displaying their various talents. For sure, Kermit and Miss Piggy showed everyone a great time.

Julie Hart, Paul Brophy and Sheila Cashin show the freshmen how to dance football style!

"Duke" and Jeff share an intimate moment.

What a cuddly friend Ellen Daley has!

Pam Orkney and Kenny Sullivan dance the morning away!

Could that be "Hazel the Lone Ranger" with big sister Marjorie Corder?

Freshmen Kenny O'Connell, Chris Whitley, Chuck Groce, Collen Murphy and Sheila Collins treat us to a lovely fashion show.

Perhaps Barbara Sousa should join the Lawrence Welk Show!

WEEKENDS WERE MADE FOR HOMECOMING

H.C. spirit again rose to a crest over Homecoming, held October 9-12, 1981. First, Green Wave harriers outran Marlboro's Panthers. The Key Club's dance was held Saturday. Sunday morning, our first Powder-Puff Football Game saw the senior girls defeat the junior team, 6-0. Our Homecoming rally was held Sunday night, and Barbara Collins was crowned 1981 Homecoming Queen. The H.C.H. gridiron put the icing on the cake by handily defeating Providence Country Day School, 32-18. Our boys showed the Knights that nothing can defeat the Green Wave spirit!

Julie Hart escapes the clutches of the Junior player-ettes.

Mark DiTomaso comes running as Michael Richards dodges the Knights' defense.

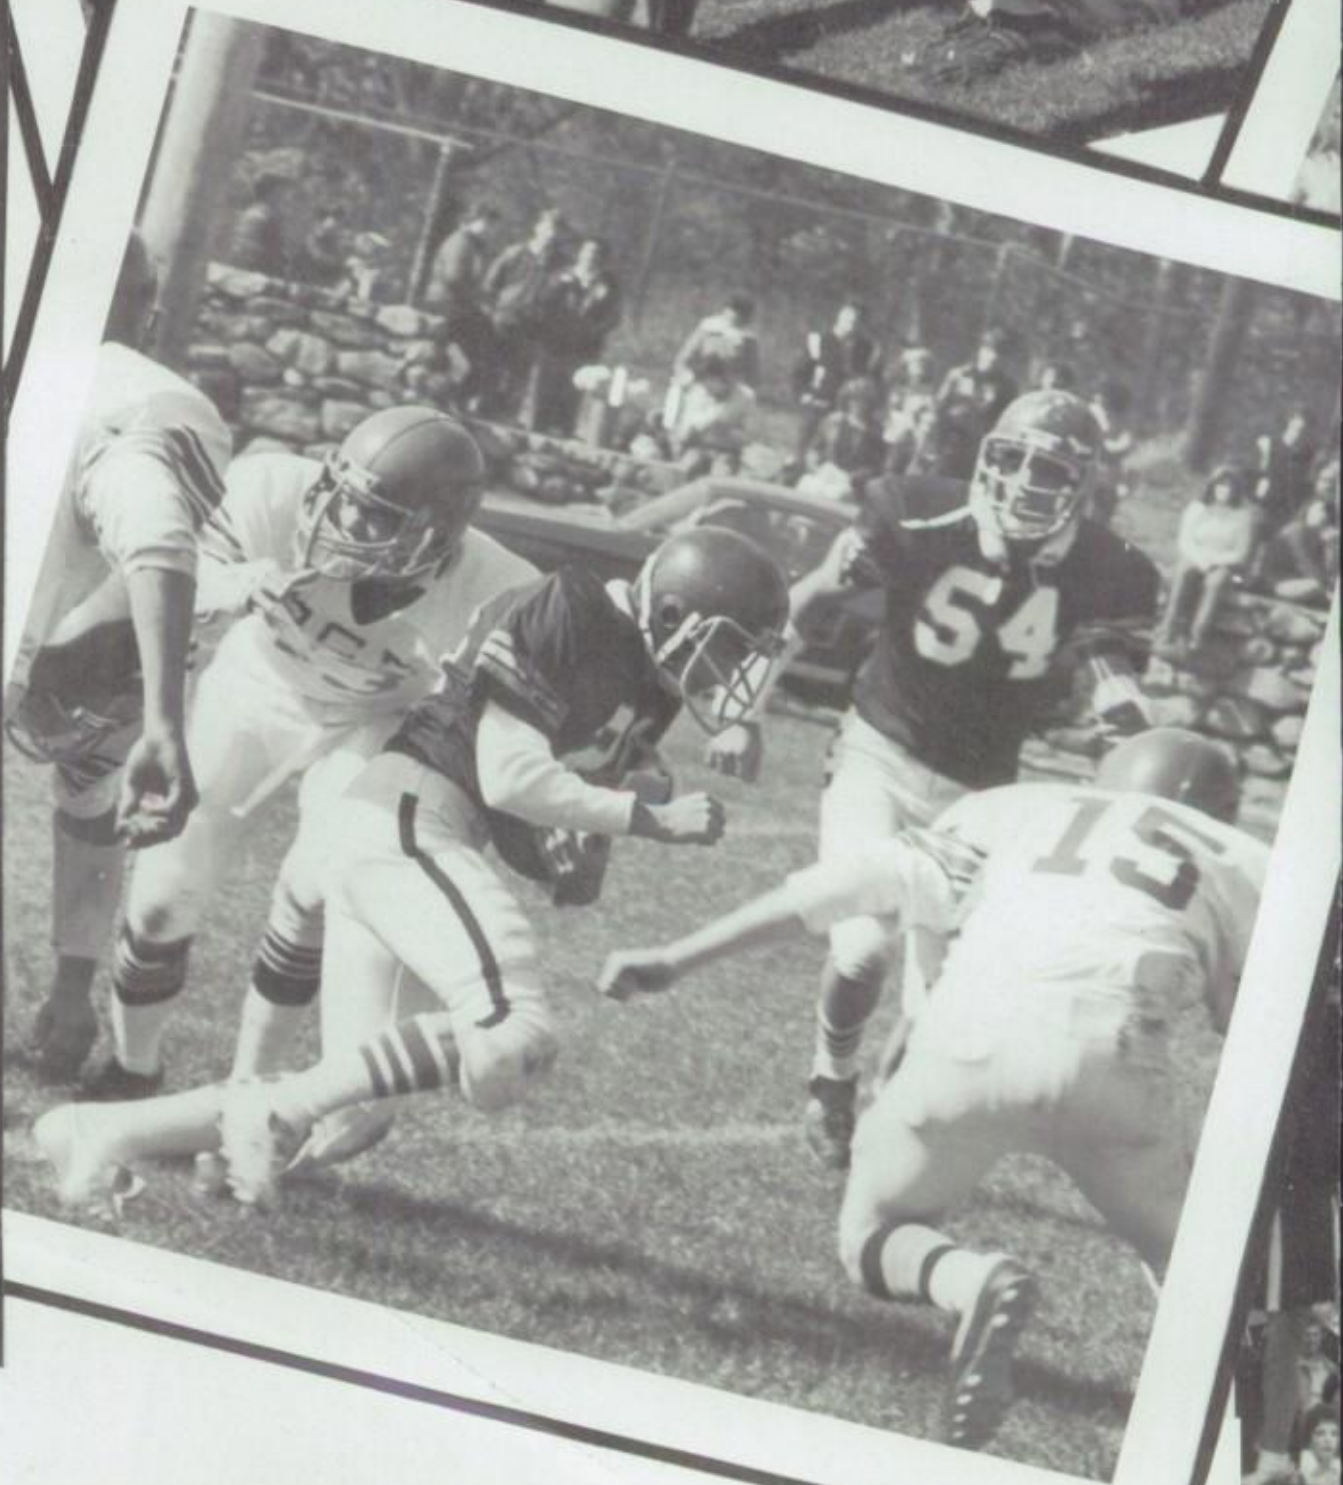

Freshmen Sheila Collins, Carolyn Bouchard, Leann Schmitt cheer on our gridiron gladiators.

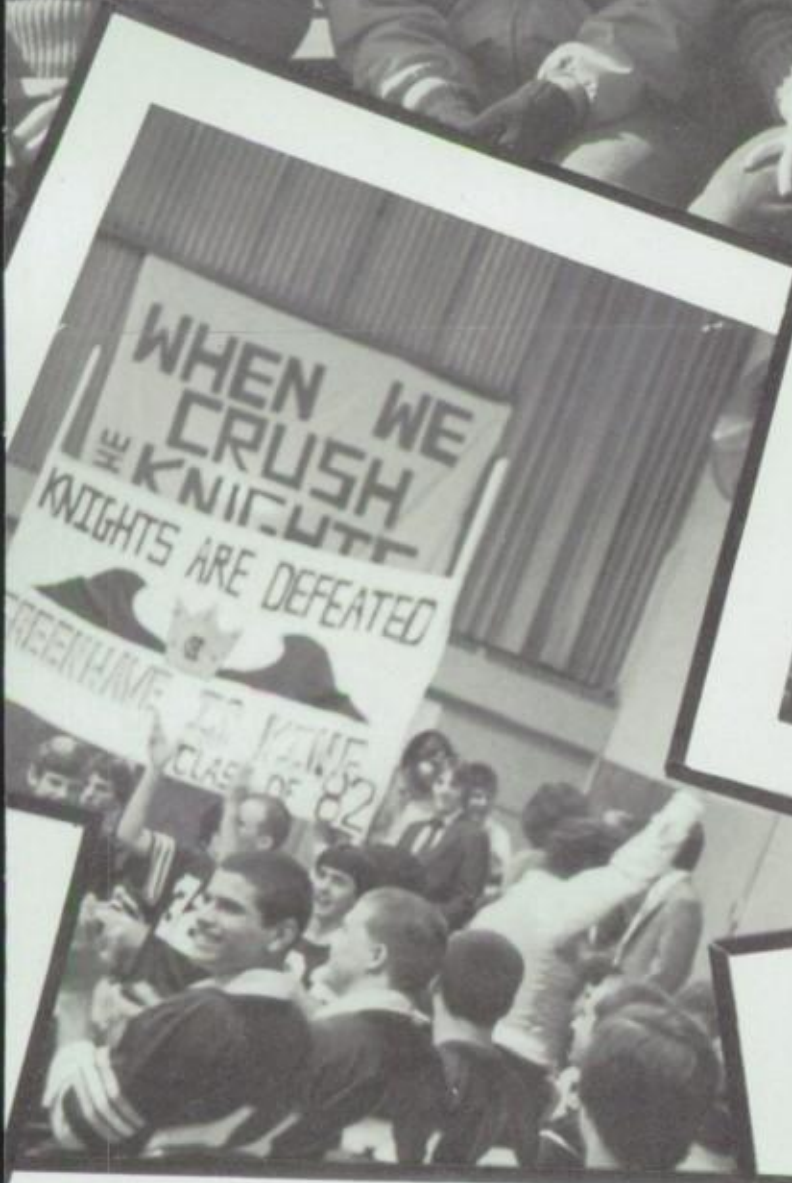

The football team joins in with the enthusiastic crowd.

Green Wave Varsity Cheerleaders pep it up for the rally crowd.

Defensive player of the game poses with our Queen, Barbara Collins.

Court members Kathy Ward, Julie Hart, Lynn O'Connell and Andrea Dupuis ride in style with queen, Barbara Collins.

THE HCH STAFF

What's in a family? Think of Hudson Catholic. We have a family of faculty, coaches, itty-bitty Freshmen, silly Sophomores, jolly Juniors, and super Seniors. Individually, we may be able to just get by, but there's nothing like the strength of the Green Wave family that draws us together and supports our every purpose.

The HCH administrative staff is a very dedicated group. The teachers are always willing to help a student with any problem he or she might have. They give their all, and it shows through their enthusiasm, interest and openness in each class they teach.

Barbara Sousa, Catherine Laliberte, and Laura Flansburg

— Paula Sacco and Sean McCurley are also in the class of "85".

Don't just pretend to believe in the virtues of Green and White; live them!

1. Eddie Owen, Bob Di Russo, Andy DeMore, Steve Gorman, and Chris O'Keefe
2. Sheila Collins, Colleen Murphy, Nancy Arsenault, Carolyn Bouchard, Clara Cabral, and Leanne Schmidt
3. Mary Beth Vigeant, Michele Malloy, Jeannine Marabito, Jenny Glidden, Sandra Mauro, Ellen Daley, and Pam Orkney
4. Chris Whitley, Billy Fitzgerald, Mark Murdock, John Weir, Kenny O'Connell, John Doyle, and Jon Conte

2. Albert Seifert, Marianne Colwill, Dean Rouse, Donna Griffon, Darleen Palso, Sue Downing, and Jamie Bradway.
3. Mike Fallon, Mike L'Bassi, John Davis, Bill Higgins, Rick Barry, Jeff Reynolds, Fran Gurl, and John Cincotta.

AN EARLY YEAR

1. Steve Kerrigan, Kyle Kennedy, Paul Silva, Rick Jarvis, Stephen Shaw, Bill Cullen, and Marc Conte.

2. Danielle DesRoches, Joanne Sacco, Laura Pope, Diane Durand, Sharon Bouchard, and Christina Mauro.

Kris DelGizzi and Christine Deckert are also sophomores.

The Green Wave's coat of arms symbolizes our purpose and heritage. The Sisters of Notre Dame's two moline crosses flank the sword of St. Michael, the protector of the Church. An open book symbolizes our instruction and education. Behind the sword are the three hills of Boston with the water from the arms of Cardinal Cushing under whose jurisdiction H.C. was established.

Mustang! Pinto! Camaro! Football bus?! Every year, H.C.'s parking lot has a new look. Whose car will break down most often? Who will end up buying a friend's "Classic" that needs only "minor improvements?" Stay tuned for next year, and the year after that, and the next . . .

1. Theresa Daniels, Joanne Sproul, Christine Tulis, Lisa Garcia, Beth Delinsky, Leanne Fitzgerald, and Laura Harris.
2. John O'Keefe, Mark Simpson, Michael Luoma, Trey Garvin, Scott Bullock and Eric Olsen.
3. Ann Laviolette, Lisa Root, Grace Kelleher, Lisa Mauro, Martha Collins, Mary Beth Daley and Joanie O'Brien.

ALMOST THERE

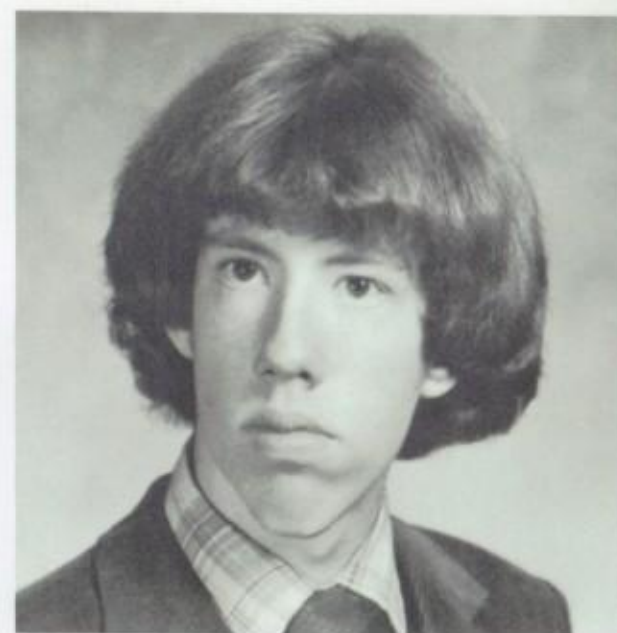

1. Jimmy Cabral, Steve Lacerte, David Priest, Rick Hopkins and Paul Garco.
 2. Anne Sabourin, Cathy Correa, Linda Sawyer, Lisa Hartman, Rosemary O'Connell, Linda Monteiro Claudia Daignealt and friend.
 3. Kevin Richards, Mark Bouchard, John Richards, Paul Cunningham and Jerry Magistri.
 4. Norah Thompson, Beth Gerner, Laura Orsatti, Sue Turcotte, Karen Salvator, Diane Thivierge and Nan O'Connell.
- Kim Hendrick and Mark DiTomasso are also members of the Class of '83'.

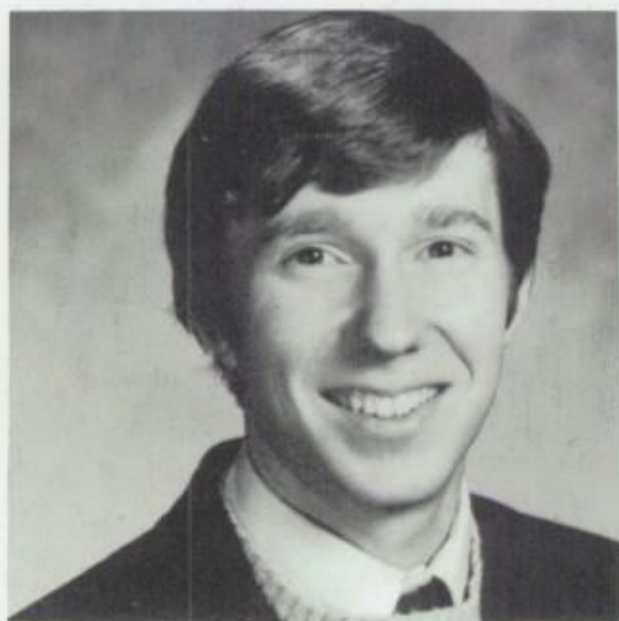

CLASS OF '82

Homecoming 1978 was our first big class effort. Our theme was "Devils to ashes when Green Wave splashes." The accompanying cheer and display were quite forgettable, but our skit won second place. Our Christmas skit, however, didn't exactly measure up to par. We presented a pitiful rendition of "The Twelve Days of Christmas," starring Joe Cunha as the "Partridge."

We also have alot of memories, academically speaking. Who can ever forget Mr. Donovan's world history class and imitations of Hitler and Machiavelli?

IT TAKES CLASS

Sophomore year, we played the Arlington Catholic Cougars at Homecoming. While we were lucky to even get a display set up, our skit and cheer were excellent. Jack "The Cheerleader" Waugh popped out of a box of TNT in our first-place cheer, and we presented a skit that SHOULD HAVE WON!

We all survived geometry and our second year of language. We also enjoyed Sr. Janice's biology and Chapter 15. Our competitive play, "Mad About Art," featured John Flansburg wearing a slink black dress, Patrick McNally in a tu-tu, and Michael Richards in a toga.

AGAIN, WE SHOULD HAVE WON

Junior year, we all experienced an "outline" of American History with Mr. Raymond, and the world of the transcendentalists with Mr. Sherman.

Then came our most unforgettable Homecoming. "Green Wave Manor" was the best display in the school, and it SHOULD HAVE WON!

A BANNER YEAR

Senior year finally arrived. For the first time, HCH had a lay principal, Mr. Paul Stanton. Soon after the year began Miss DiPinto and her 0, molecules left us for a booming Mr. Wentworth.

On Freshman Day, we threw together yet another skit. The theme was the Muppets. At Homecoming, we swept first place in the banner, decoration and skit competitions. Barbara Collins was crowned Homecoming Queen, along with court Andrea Dupuis, Julie Hart, Kathy Ward and Lynn O'Connell.

In March, HCH presented "Mame," featuring Glenda Sawicki ("Young Patrick"), Cindy Wolkovich ("Agnes Gooch"), John Flansburg ("Dwight Babcock"), Matthew O'Neil ("Claude Upson"), and Paul Brophy ("Older Patrick").

MAKING THE GRADE

The HC curriculum contains a varied selection of required courses. Every student must study four years of English, religion and physical education. Two years' study of math and a foreign language is also required, as well as one year of American history and biology.

Sandra Mauro and Chris O'Keefe work on a Spanish assignment.

Bill Fitzgerald and Rob DiRusso work dilligently in their workbooks.

Jeff Reynolds and Mike Fallon in biology class.

Joe Cunha escapes the pursuit of Rosemary O'Connell.

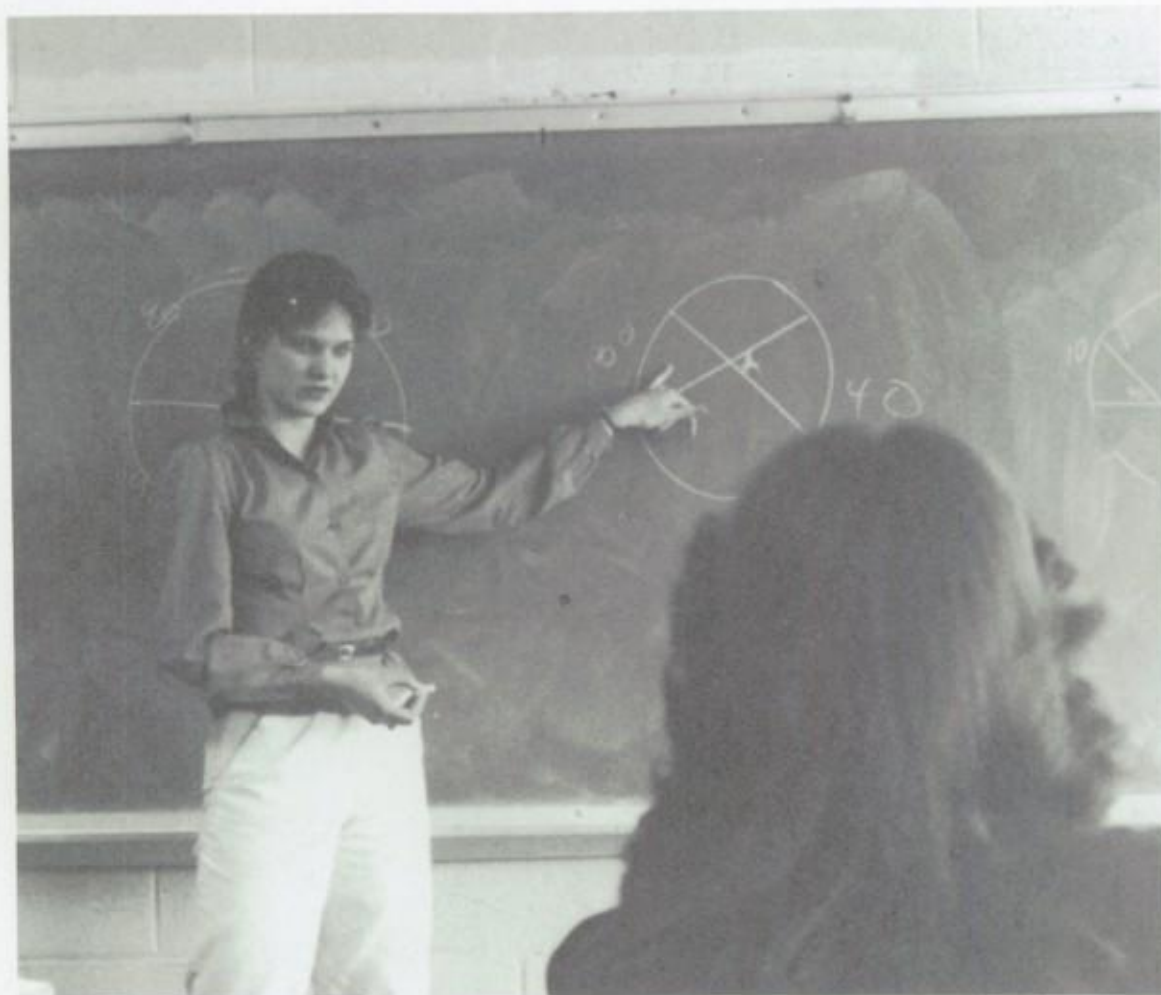

Clara Cabral skips through the Freshman hall.

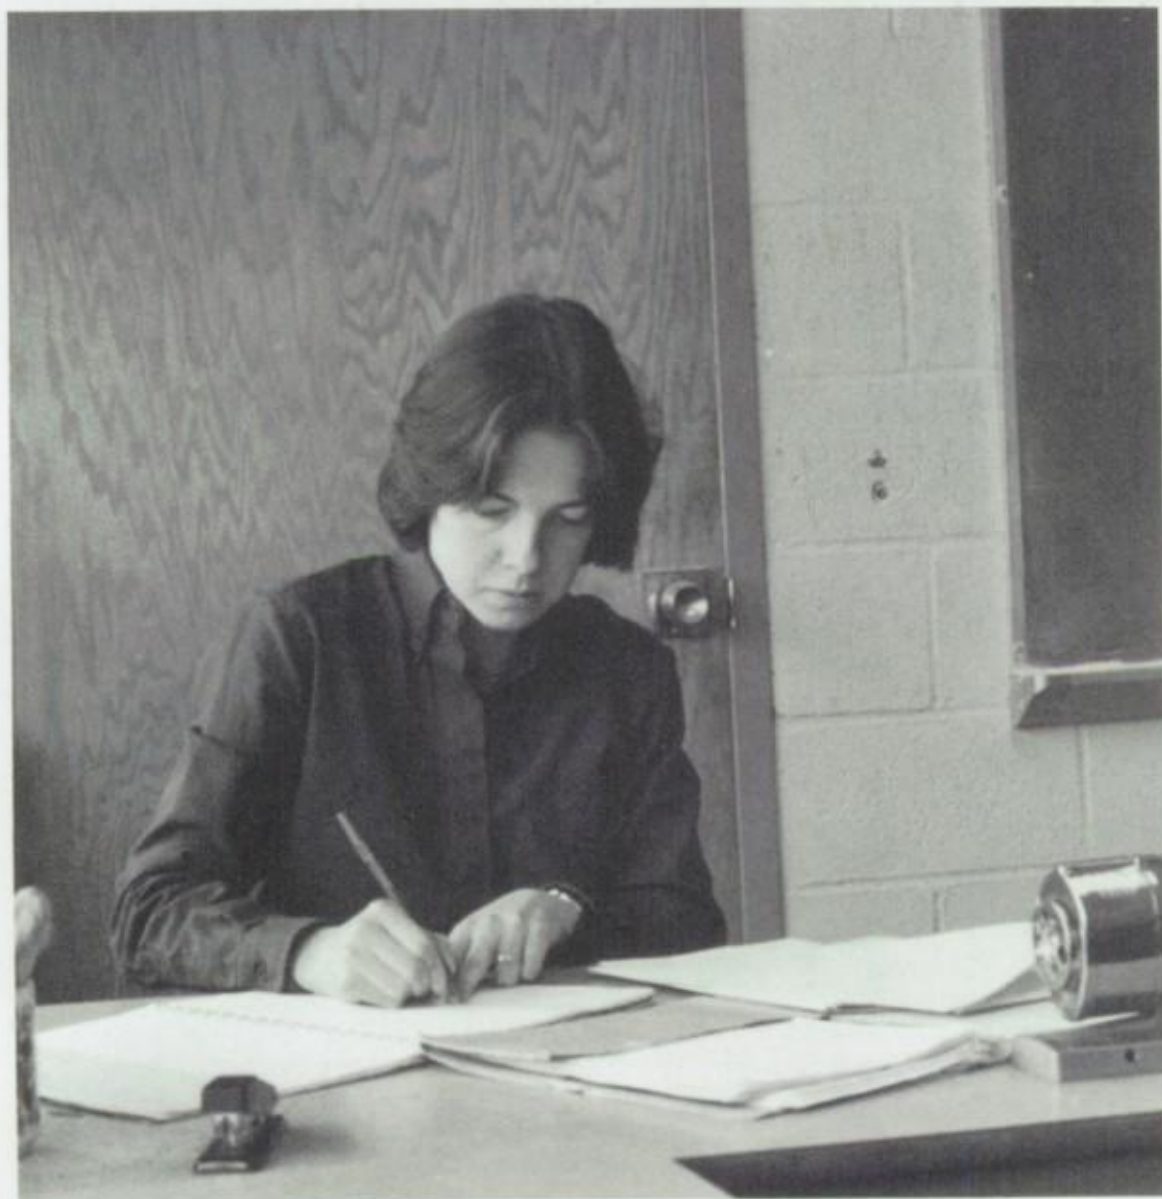

Laura Flansburg finds the brain waves more exciting on the floor.

New teacher Grace Kelleher?

Sophomores Chris Carco and Lisa Cahill study together.

Miss Metcalf organizes her students' marks.

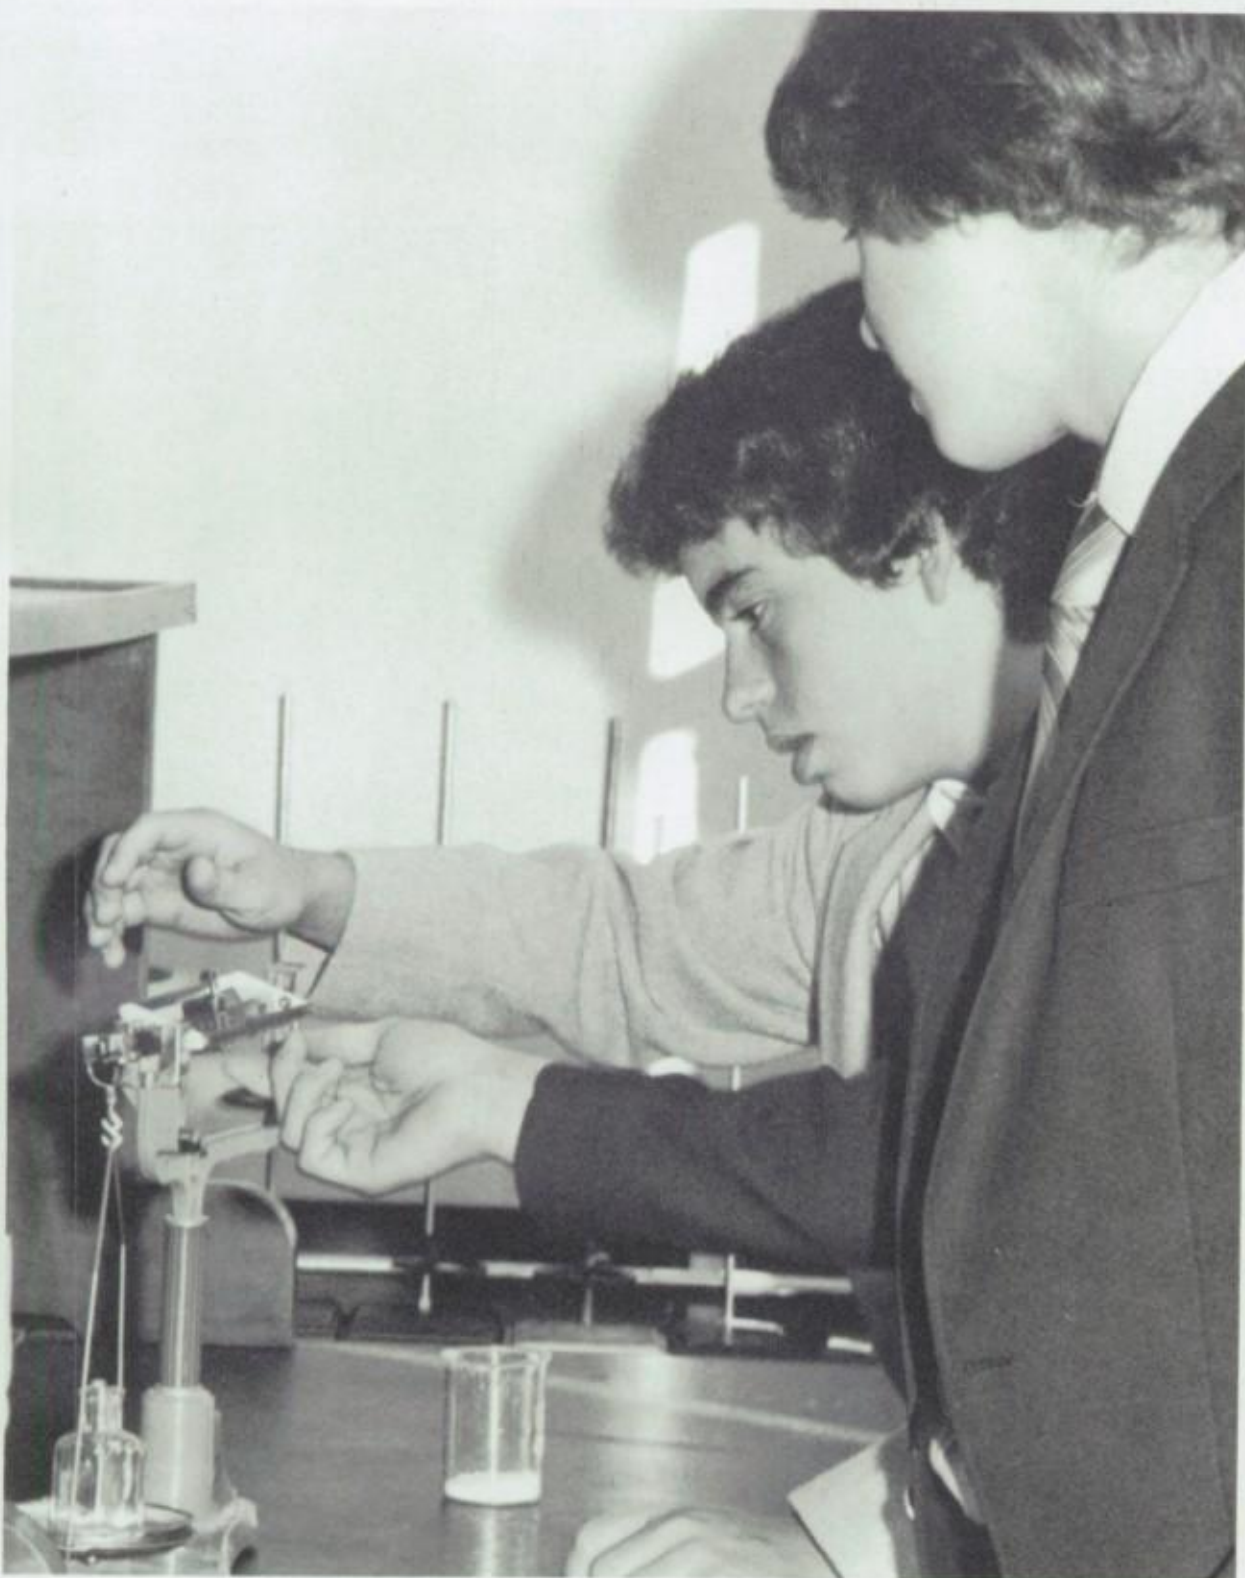

Andrea Dupuis reads at the weekly Communion service.

Brenda Larmand appears to be thinking.

VARIATIONS ON A SUBJECT

There are also variations on our required course schedule, such as biology and chemistry labs. Math and Liturgical activities, such as math club and the Communion services, also stem from the required curriculum.

Mark Simpson and Jim Cabral try to make it through the first step in their chemistry experiment.

TAKE YOUR PICK!

At Hudson Catholic, required courses are not the only part of the daily schedule. Coming into play are the alternative education and optional courses. The optional courses include the sciences, such as chemistry, business courses, such as typing, and art. These options, along with the required courses, provide a wide range of classes and make us well-rounded students.

John Flansburg "brainstorms" at the computer.

Another masterpiece being created by John Conte.

Stephen Shaw hard at work on an art project.

Elaine Bedard looks over a typing assignment.

Bridgette Brown bangs out another letter.

Barbara Collins, teacher's aid, encourages a young student.

Mrs. Mauro leads a group of line dancers.

Sharon Bouchard gains ground on Mark DiTomaso.

Ooh, the concentration between Rick Barry and Mike L'Bassi!

ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION

Since variety is the spice of life, our alternative education program provides us with a change from our usual academic schedule. Classes taught this year included sewing, line dancing, chess club, CPR, teacher aid, creative writing, group process, psychology of sports, chorus, and the "HCH Timeline." The courses were taught by faculty members, parents such as Mrs. Mauro, and community members such as Mr. Kesslof from Marlboro Hospital.

Sr. Barbara lends a helping hand to freshman Michele Malloy.

ACADEMIC CLUBS

Our "academic" clubs include freshman and varsity math teams and the National Honor Society, composed of juniors and seniors.

The math teams compete in the Worcester County Math League. This year, the varsity team was one of the highest-scoring teams among small schools. National Honor members are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service. This year, the society instituted a tutoring program, and presented the Christmas assembly.

Honorable Robert Belmonte delivers the keynote address at the National Honor induction.

New gold tassels bring out the best in Honor Bourgeois and Donna DesRochers.

New member Anne Sabourin participates in the candle-lighting ceremony at the induction.

Fr. Stephen Salocks and Fr. Kirouac at the end of a liturgy.

Beth Fay hops around at the Halloween Dance.

Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, HC style: Sharon Bouchard, Martha Collins, Carolyn Bouchard, Christina Mauro, Sandra Mauro, Ellen Daley, Lisa Mauro, and Paul Cunningham.

"LEADERS"

The Liturgy Committee and Folk Group work hand-in-hand preparing our liturgical celebrations. Our Liturgy Committee plans the celebrations, while the folk group bolsters up the singing at the services. This year, the Student Advisory Board sponsored the Thanksgiving Day social, Social Justice Day, and the Halloween Dance, and they helped with the Social Service Day.

SERVING US

Three busy clubs at HC are the yearbook and newspaper staffs and the key club. The yearbook and newspaper staff pour hours of energy into making our two school publications interesting and enjoyable. The key club, on the other hand, never lets us forget our school spirit and enthusiasm, as they sponsor numerous activities such as our big Homecoming Weekend.

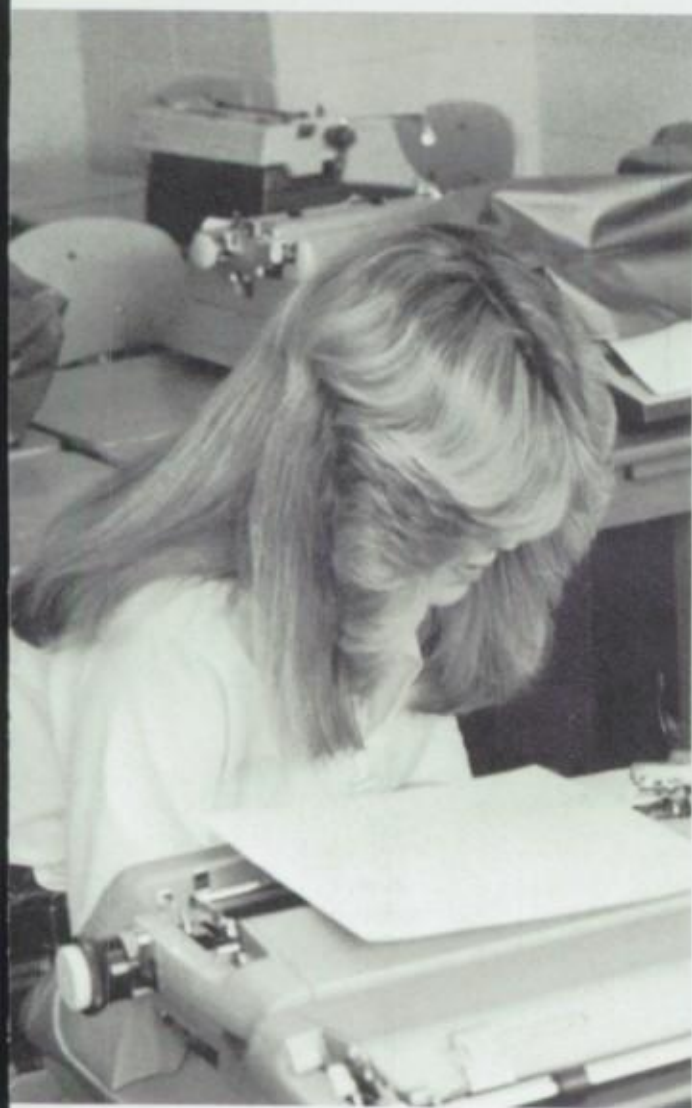

Yearbook staff: Cynthia Wolkovich, Lisa Hartman, Linda Monteiro, Claudia Daigneault; Andrea Dupuis, Maria Scichilone, Rosemary O'Connell, Lynn O'Connell and John O'Keefe.

Paula Bouchard keeps the pace up.

Led by a new coach, Dennis Pierozzi, the cross-country teams experienced an enjoyable season. The girls had a powerful season, running to an 11-5 overall record. The girls were 6-4 in the Central Catholic League, and finished a remarkable 7 out of 23 teams in the district. It was a team effort led by junior Anne Sabourin, who was named a Globe All-Star.

1981 Cross-Country team: Laura Flansburg, Paula Bouchard, Leanne Schmidt, Sandra Mauro, Ellen Daley, Carolyn Bouchard, Michele Malloy, Beth Fay, Joanne Duckworth; Anne Sabourin, Lisa Mauro, Kathy Ward, Julie Hart, Sheila Cashin, Diane Bradway, Michele Bouchard, Sharon Bouchard; Coach Dennis Pierozzi, John Weir, Kevin Richards, Paul Cunningham, Patrick McNally, Mark Bouchard, Ed Hawes, Jamie Bradway, manager Lynne Ward.

Looks like Mark Bouchard and little sisters Carolyn and Sharon are running after big sis Michele!

For the boys, this was a rebuilding year, as they finished with a disappointing 2-14 league record. Led by juniors Paul Cunningham and Mark Bouchard, the team showed much potential for the future.

KICK OFF!

The 1981 football season was quite successful for the Green Wave this year. The team went 6-4 overall. Our success was the result of hard work under the direction of our dedicated coaching staff consisting of Coach Sherman, Coach Pierozzi, and Coach Harris, and fine performances by our four all-stars.

Little Kenny O'Connell leads some big sideline cheers.

Although the 1982 basketball season was disappointing as far as the record goes, many good things happened along the way. The season went by quickly and was highlighted by a 79-78 final-second victory over St. Patrick's the last game of the year. We hope that the spirit and enthusiasm of this game will carry into next year for a successful season.

This year, the varsity team had only a few returning varsity players. Most of last year's undefeated J.V. team, therefore, moved up to varsity. Despite the adjustments, we enjoyed a winning season (7-5, league) and a lot of fun times. The three coaches, Mary Kelleher-Gould, Mark Wentworth, and Sharon Cunningham, really made the season one of learning and enjoyment.

IN THE NAME OF SCHOOL SPIRIT

Cheerleaders are the backbone of support and enthusiasm of our sports teams. Their sacrifice of long hours of practice and perseverance led to our squads' excellence this year. After sharing wins and losses with the football and basketball teams, the girls brought home two trophies from their own competitions—all in the name of school spirit.

As usual, our girls romped through their schedule, and found themselves champs at the end of the season. Under coaches Sherman and Raymond, the team brought home a seventh consecutive championship in the Division 2 South Catholic Suburban League. Five girls were named league All-Stars, and talented underclassmen promise an even brighter future for the team.

Well, faster than a speeding bullet, our sports seasons were over. And what a year we had! This year, we had many excellent teams: a determined football team . . . strong cross-country teams . . . competitive basketball and baseball teams . . . super cheering squads . . . a top-notch softball team . . . and a superb track team of record-breakers and champions.

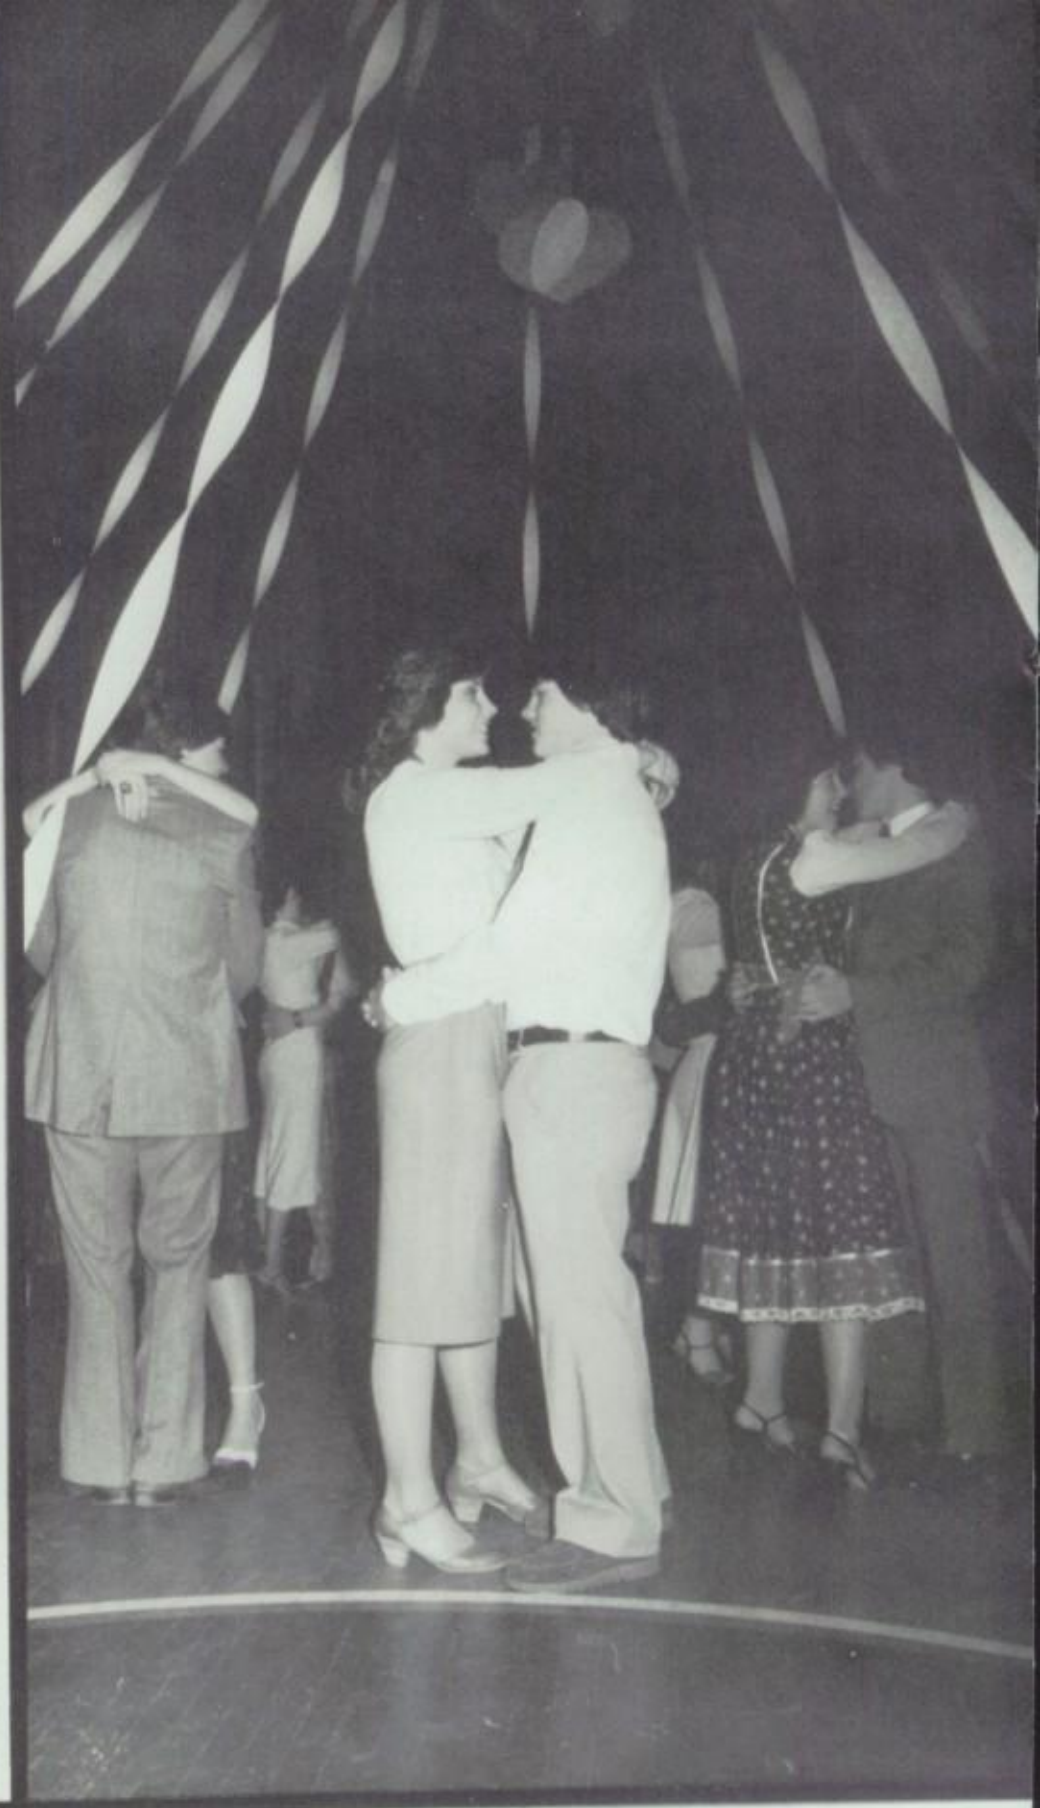

GOOD OL' GREEN WAVE

Far above the win-loss records and trophies, though, are the memories of the past year. Everyone will look back on the sports seasons fondly, whether as a spectator, manager, or athlete, because of the friendships and good times shared.

John Parsons and Karen Salvatore share a romantic dance.

SPECIAL TIMES

Our semi-formal dance was almost snowed out this year. After being rescheduled, though, the Snowball Dance turned out to be a big success. It was finally held on February 18, and everyone had a great time, dancing to music by the George Perkins Orchestra; dinner was served by Jean's Catering.

Junior year is a special time. Numerous class events bring students closer together, including class day, career days, the prom and the Powder-Puff. Perhaps the most special of these is Ring Day. This year, the juniors celebrated friendship at their ring ceremony, a theme which carries throughout the year.

CONGRATULATIONS, ATHLETES!

Our annual sports awards night was held Saturday, May 22. Guest speaker Steve Nelson of the New England Patriots entertained the athletes and their families. Athletic Director Dennis Pierozzi and the various coaches presented the following awards: MVP's—Anne Sabourin and Paul Cunningham, cross country; Paul Brophy, football; Meg Holmes and Nora Thompson, football and basketball cheerleading; Mark Bouchard and Martha Collins, boys' and girls' basketball; Gerry Magistri, baseball; Martha Collins, softball; Diane Bradway and Scott Harris, track. Special awards— Michael Richards, Key Club Award; Julie Hart, Letterman Award; Jeff Publicover and Diane Bradway, Brule Achievement Award; David Levell and Kathy Ward, Unsung Hero Award; Christine Loureiro and Jim Sabourin, Sportsmanship Award; Julie Hart and Michael Richards, Athletic Director's Award; Sheila Cashin, HCH Student-Athlete Award; and Jim Sabourin, 6th Player Award, Basketball.

WE WERE JUST SENSATIONAL

"Babcock" (John Flansburg) and "Gooch" (Cindy Wolkovich) discuss the Laboratory of Life.

Lights—Curtain—Action—"Mame!" We made "Mame" come alive at HCH this year. Sr. Barbara and Mr. Sherman again co-directed the production. Together, they shaped us into a proud crew of singers, dancers and actors. Months of determination and endless hours of practice went into making our show the success that it became.

Our behind-the-scenes crew did a great job as well. Sr. Maryann's sets, for instance, were the hit of the show. Mrs. Soave and Miss Metcalfe also put much effort into our costumes.

Everything finally fell into place when we presented our show March 20 and 21 at Assabet Valley High.

This crew got more than a "little" Christmas!

Chuck Groce, "Lindsay," always did what "Mame" asked.

TIME FOR PLAY

After the Competitive Plays' absence from HCH life last year, the four classes rejuvenated the tradition in fine style. Each class performed well, but when the votes were tallied, the juniors were awarded first place for their presentation of "The Mad Breakfast," which was directed by Mrs. Helen DiTomasso.

Seniors Diane Bradway, Sheila Cashin, Debbie Griffin and Michele Bouchard applaud the juniors.

Class of '83 sings "Just Looking Back."

Sr. Marie Emmanuel, Sr. Margaret Delores, Miss Wasko and Sr. Felicitas keep an eye on the skit.

May 26, 1982, was the date of our annual class day. The first event was at the school, when the juniors presented a skit about an average HC day, and sang their original class song, "Just Looking Back." The Seniors followed by reading their class will, history and prophecy, and singing their class song. The the two groups shipped off to Canobie Lake Park for a day of fun. The Class of '83 definitely presented a super day!

Pam Delaney and Elaine Bedard share a little joke.

Elaine Bolt and Donna DesRochers read the Class Prophecy.

WE WERE "JUST LOOKING BACK"

This year, we bid farewell to four special faculty members, Sr. Marie, Sr. Margaret, Miss Wasko and Sr. Felicitas. We appreciate all they have done and will miss their thoughtfulness. Thanks to all four, for their teaching, counseling and all-around help!

Dynamic duo Sue Turcotte and Claudia Daigneault.

"THE BEST OF TIMES"

"The Best of Times," our junior-senior prom, was held May 19. A pre-prom reception was held in the gym, which was decorated in rainbow colors. Dinner and dancing followed at the Chateau de Ville. It was a memorable night for all.

Linda Sawyer and her date pose at the reception.

Diane Thiverge and David Levell: Pretty as a picture!

THE LAUGHTER AND THE TEARS

Graduation is a time of both joy and tears, and it's also the most memorable night of high school.

The Class of '82 made it down the aisle together on May 27. Graduates, faculty, family and friends participated in the celebration of the Mass, followed by commencement exercises. Speakers were Michael Richards, class president, and Rev. Ronald Desrosiers. Fr. Desrosiers urged us not to be afraid to live and to keep working at our ultimate selves.
